BIRTHDAY

A day that seems to know her.

Real places, live actors and the details of her life — with the people she loves close by.

— One day, written from the details of her life.

— Her people learn their lines. She learns nothing.

— Real places, live actors — and a table she did not book.

WHAT YOU RECEIVE, AND WHEN

Within two days	A first conversation. Who she is, what she loves, the memories that matter.
Within a week	The day on one page. The places, the cast, the moment she understands.
Two to eight weeks	We write and rehearse. Her people learn their lines; she learns nothing.
The day before	The envelope: time, place, what to bring. She receives a breakfast reservation she did not make.
After	One record of the day, in one copy. Nothing is filmed unless you ask.

IN THEIR WORDS

"I am so impressed of how they managed to create the best possible day, 100% designed for my sister."
